President's Report

Regional Transition Group / Amalgamation

- Dominic Carbone and Associates have been endorsed by the Board of the South East Avon Regional Transition Group (SEARTG) to prepare a Regional Business Plan. Dominic Carbone is the Executive Officer for SEAVROC and has previously worked with each of the RTG partners in various capacities.
- Community consultation is to be undertaken as part of developing the draft Regional Business Plan.
- The aim of the Business Plan is to provide information for Communities to make an informed decision about their future and guide the process of how this might occur. The plan will endeavour to identify the benefits or otherwise of amalgamation, both from an economic and social point of view. No decision has been made if an amalgamation is to proceed.
- The Regional Business Plan will investigate amalgamating Beverley Council with Cunderdin, Quairading, Tammin and York, including retention of services, local identity, community representation, a shop front in each of the current Shires and cost implications.
- Funding has been provided by the State Government to develop the Regional Business Plan. Councils have not however been reimbursed for the Staff and Councillor commitment required as part of the process.
- Following development of the Business Plan, another round of Community consultation will be held prior to any decisions being made which would move the group toward amalgamation.
- The subsidiary model which was being pursued by SEAVROC in the structural reform process was not supported by the Minister for Local Government. Brookton is still a member of SEAVROC, however have chosen to form an RTG grouping with Pingelly to investigate the possibility of amalgamation.
- Your Councillors are very keen for electors to take an interest and be involved in the consultation process, particularly following a request made at the annual electors meeting for more community information relating to the structural reform process being participated in by the Shire of Beverley.

Storm

The sudden severe storm on Saturday 29th January caused havoc to businesses, private property and infrastructure around the Beverley district and it is anticipated the clean up and repair work will be ongoing for many months to come if not for the rest of the year.

In the immediate aftermath of the storm, with numerous sections of road impassable, shire staff and many rural landowners worked long hours to ensure at least a minimum level of road accessibility, which I'm sure was greatly appreciated by those requiring access, including FESA and Western Power.

With the SES fully pre-occupied due to damage elsewhere, there were many in our community out helping others who didn't fare so well, with at least two families requiring temporary accommodation and many homes tagged to have electrical checks prior to reinstatement of power to their properties. The extended power outage was a challenge in itself.

With the various natural disaster events that have been occurring around Australia and now in New Zealand our experience could be viewed as humbling. Never the less, this was a disaster event in our district and debriefs involving Councillors, FESA services, Police, Department of Child Protection Emergency Assistance and the Local Emergency Management Committee have been held to review the response.

There is information elsewhere in the Blarney relating to the ongoing clean-up.

"Thank you to everyone who gave a helping hand"

Recreation Feasibility Report

Mark Casserly from CCS Strategic made a presentation to Councillors and community group representatives on 10th February, utilising the new screen and projector in the town hall. The proposal was well received and the submission made to the Department of Sport and Recreation (DSR) for funding assistance supported, the outcome of which is still several months away.

The Community Sporting Recreation Facilities Fund (CSRFF) Small Grants was identified in the recreation feasibility review as an opportunity to obtain assistance for relocation and upgrade of the multipurpose courts. Council has since resolved to support an application which will most likely occur in the second funding round this year.

There is now an urgency to identify the outcome of the Amenities building roof damage as many groups will be requiring the use of a community building on the oval with the commencement of winter sports.

Town Entry Statements

The Town Entry Statement Committee has held several meetings and recently took the opportunity of sending representatives to a Public Art Seminar which encompassed an array of topics, including town entry statements. The Committee have since agreed to investigate the prospect of engaging assistance from an arts specialist to formulate a unique project relating to Beverley, along with funding possibilities to support this. It is anticipated there will be community engagement in developing a proposal for the town entry statements.

THANK YOU

Desley wishes to sincerely thank all friends and relatives for their support, messages and attendance at the service for her much loved Fred. Special thank you to Peter and Lorraine, Peter and Verna and Greg and Gail. 'Friendship is priceless.'

THANK YOU

Sheila and Ted Sheehan cannot thank the people of Beverley enough for everything that they have done to help and support us since January 29.

We all know what the day was like, but help was at our house right away. How lucky we are to live here and have so many people who really do care. Daily we are still meeting people who help more than they can ever know by just asking how we are.

I think we were both dumbstruck - yes, even me for a while, but when you see the terrible happenings all over the State we are truly blessed. We are well, we have friends, we have Beverley.

Thank you.

THANK YOU

To our landlords, Ash and Dawn; their friends; Hayman Roofing Constructors and staff; our son-in-law Damon; friends and neighbours, who helped when we lost our roof recently, please accept our grateful thanks. This served to reinforce our belief that we are where we BELONG; in the friendly town of Beverley.

God bless you all.

BEVERLEY TOURIST BUREAU

Our Bureau has had visitors coming in from various parts of Australia and overseas in the past few months. Many people from Europe, South and West Africa and New Zealand. They range from retirees to backpackers and most have a story to tell and we welcome them.

The Bureau has recently had a wonderful donation of a WWII flying coat from a local resident. Thank you.

Our committee is committed to helping improve both the Bureau and Museum and work on ideas to help make Beverley an even better place to live.

Over the next few months a shed will be erected to overcome our storage problems. We plan to help improve street signage, and the Tourist Bay on Hunt Road must have a serious 'makeover'. The Vampire Jets will also receive attention.

There are other items on our program, but we are a small group and all volunteers, so these things take time.

Thank you to everyone.

If you would like to become a Tourist Bureau volunteer and help promote this wonderful town of ours, please drop in to the Tourist Bureau and chat to a Beverley Tourist Bureau member.

In Memory of Jann Howard

It is with great sadness that the Beverley Agricultural Society notes the sudden passing of our long time colleague and friend Jann Howard. Jann started coming to meetings in July of 1997 and soon became a regular attendee of all meetings. You could always rely on her to be there, so over time she became something of an institution in her own right.

In 1999 Jann took on the role of shed secretary then in following years applied her skills to overseeing the organisation of catering for members, VIPs and volunteers. She put her whole heart into whatever she did and Jann's friendly chatty personality made her a great hostess when it came to making guests feel welcome.

In recent years Jann took on the job of trophy selections, she donated the perpetual art trophy and has for many years quietly paid for all those ribbons for most outstanding exhibit in each section. It was typical of her that she didn't want her name to be on the trophy or ribbons, Jann would always just say to anyone who asked that it came from the Ag Society. Of course over the years Jann amassed her own collection of prizes for her exquisite needlework. I remember listening to the judges commenting on how perfect the stitches were, which was typical of anything Jann undertook, she took care and time to make sure everything was as perfect as she could make it.

We will all miss her very much.

Women's Interests Minister Robyn McSweeney today announced one-off annual grants of up to $5,000 to eligible community groups and organisations which provide services to West Australian women.

Grants will be provided to applicants who run projects to strengthen the social and economic wellbeing of women; increase their participation in the community; promote positive images of women; and encourage a sense of leadership and safety.

"The one-off grants, worth $80,000 in total, are on offer to help community organisations and not-for profit groups encourage greater participation of women in our communities," Mrs McSweeney said.

"2011 is a unique year as we mark the centenary of International Women's Day where we hope to continue promoting the equality of women by developing projects that highlight and strengthen women's economic, political and social accomplishments."

The Minister said eligible groups and organisations must be incorporated not-for-profit organisations; or unincorporated organisations or community groups applying through the auspices of an incorporated body or local government, to be eligible to apply.

Projects delivered in 2010 as part of the grants program included:

- Relationships Australia (WA) ran events to bring women together who had experienced domestic violence and gave women skills designed to enhance their personal safety.
- Small Business Centre Goldfields ran 'Women in Business - Personal Mastery' - one-day programs designed to give women extra skills to achieve results in their businesses.
- Manjimup Family Centre 'Rainbow Mum's project supported local mothers with post-natal depression and issues relating to social isolation.

Guidelines and information for applicants are available at <http://www.communities.wa.gov.au/grants> or by phoning the Department for Communities on 6217 8400. The deadline is 5:00pm, April 15, 2011.

Successful applicants are expected to complete their projects within 12 months of their grant allocation.

Platform Theatre

Pete Rowsthorn Live:-Well, he promised 2 hours of laughter and that's what we got. It was a fantastic atmosphere with a crowd just short of 300 who started to arrive around 6pm to claim a spot and enjoy their picnic on a perfect summer's evening. People ventured from far and wide to see the show - Sawyers Valley and Mundaring, Perth, Toodyay, York, Quairading, Pingelly, and even a busload from Brookton. All visitors said how much they enjoyed the relaxed ambience of the outdoor theatre and are looking forward to future events. Thanks to everyone for the manner in which the venue was left - a couple of bottle tops were all that was found on the grassed area. And thanks too to our wonderful committee and their spouses, and to several of our 'Friends of the Gallery' for helping out on the night. Not to mention the incredible job Barry and Pauline of Beverley Newsagency did with the issuing of tickets and food vouchers. All in all it was a magnificent night with the promise of more to come which leads me to the official opening of the Platform Theatre.

Gala Opening: Saturday 19th March is the date set for the official opening of the Platform Theatre. Flyers advertising the event are around town (and surrounding towns) as is elsewhere in the Blarney and on the Beverley website www.beverleywa.com (click on 'Things to do' - very helpful when advising friends further a field of what's going on in town). Due to the logistics of available space at the Station Gallery, it has been decided not to offer a meal to the public on this occasion. However, the hot spud and coffee vans will be in attendance, along with snacks and cool drinks at the Guard's Kitchen and wines and beers at the bars. It is a licensed event so no BYO, and under 18's must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian at all times in the bar area - which is the entire Station precinct. Seating will be formal to encourage more people to attend so please leave your chairs and eskies at home.

Tickets for the Gala Opening are $30, however the first 100 tickets sold to local residents will get them for $20 (only 2 per family), so be quick and buy now! The ticket subsidy is courtesy of the Dry Season Assistance Scheme offered by the Rural Business Development Corporation.

We assure you a to remember, as along with the official opening by the Honourable Brendon Grylls, the ceremony will include 2 solo acts by Beverley music teacher, Nicole Harris, and Ann Rayner's daughter, Kelly Simpson, plus entertainment by the Metro Big Band. A 17 piece big band fronted by 1 male and 2 female vocalists delivering the best jazz, swing, and classics of your life, the band promise us a powerhouse of glamour, elegance and excitement! So get out those glad rags and dress for the occasion! It will make you feel like dancing (which will be restricted to the paved areas either side of the stage).

Treasurer: If anyone in the community wishes to join the committee of the Beverley Art Gallery Society, the job is Treasurer! This does not entail the Easter Art Exhibition, but does include the Station shop sales along with the theatre events finances.

Station Festivities: We're planning a terrific fun day for the kids on Easter Saturday 23rd April, along with some great craft and produce stalls at the Station.

Easter Art Exhibition

Anyone wishing to enter works of art into the 43rd Annual Art Exhibition can pick up entry forms at either the Shire offices, Station Gallery or the Newsagency. There are many sections of 2D media that can be entered into, including sections for children so get those pencils and paintbrushes out kids!

Easter Art Raffle

Raffle tickets now on sale at the Newsagency or Station Gallery for the lovely oil painting by Barry Mackie (judged Best Local Artist 2010) and framed by Chris and Ruth Baker of York.

Artists in Residence

We're gearing up for another packed year of Artists in Residence. During April, Neil Elliott who lectures at Claremont School of Art, will conduct 2 different workshops on the 8th and 9th of April. The Friday one will concentrate on 2D mixed media incorporating found objects, and the Saturday class will be metal sculpting with found objects - sounds like one for the blokes out there! Please indicate your interest to Marylou (details below).

Artists in Residence programme 2011 thus far:

April: Neil Elliott from Perth

June: Helen Amyes from York

July: Marta Salamon from Victoria

August: Michael Vandeleur from Safety Bay

Contact Artist in Residence coordinator Marylou Hutchinson on 9647 1027 / 0427 085 511 or email; hutchinson@wn.com.au for any further information of the above.

Station Gallery Garden

Special thanks to the garden fairies who have kept the garden alive during this hot dry summer with watering and weeding, and re-staking the standard roses after the horrific storm. Weren't we lucky to have only lost one limb of the gum tree in the theatre seating area? The same can't be said for the poor old Cape Lilac in the gravelled area, but, the buildings still stand proud!

In closing, have you noticed the very flash and innovative bench seating that Brett and Marylou have crafted? Worth a look - and no, they're not taking orders!)

FREE Public Lecture Cancer Council WA

Cancer Council Western Australia and the Western Australian Clinical Oncology Group is pleased to invite you to a free public lecture titled

Breast reconstruction - tailor made or grow your own?

Speaker: Professor Wayne Morrison
Bernard O'Brien Institute of Microsurgery, Melbourne

Date: Tuesday 15th March 2011
Time: 12.30 - 1.15 PM

Where: State Library of WA Alexander Library Building,
Sited in Northbridge between Francis Street and the James Street Mall.

RSVP: Registrations to attend are essential as places are limited.
Please call the Cancer Council Helpline on 13 11 20

Background

The experimental stem cell breast-growing technique - called Neopec - could replace breast reconstructions and implants within years. The trial offers hope to more than 5000 Australian women who lose their breasts to cancer each year.

Scientists from the Bernard O'Brien Institute of Microsurgery in Melbourne are working on implanting fat cells, which will multiple rapidly and be shaped into the breast removed during cancer surgery.

The process relies on surgeons implanting a biodegradable synthetic breast-shaped chamber beneath the skin on a woman's chest to act as a scaffold for the new breast to grow in. They then redirect a blood vessel from the woman's underarm through the chamber to a 5ml piece of the patient's own fat, which spontaneously grows to fill a fist-sized space and form a new breast over the next four to six months.

Professor Morrison will present the latest developments in this very promising experimental work. All members of the public are welcome to attend.

An extra set of hands for rural families in WA

WA farmers needing a break are now linked to a national network of people who can look after their properties.

The Department of Agriculture and Food WA has formed an alliance with Frontier Services, which runs the successful Outback Links Program.

"In the case of WA, the program initially is seen as beneficial to farmers who need time out due to the dry season," department Regional Operations and Development executive director Greg Paust said.

"The beauty of this program is that it's well established and operates all year. It's not just the dry season when farmers might need a break."

The program primarily exists to minimise the isolation found in some parts of remote Australia, by linking skilled volunteers with individuals and families who need help.

During the past three years, a growing number of volunteers have:

- Given respite to palliative, sick or elderly station dwellers;
- Provided childcare and education, freeing rural women for other tasks;
- Given station assistance in times of flood recovery and drought;
- Provided station caretaking to enable those on the land to tend to off-farm commitments;
- Assisted with practical advice on IT, or building and machine maintenance.

The volunteer workforce comprises people of all ages, skill levels, backgrounds and nationalities. All have been police-checked and they are insured.

"Through Outback Links we can provide help based on the skills of available volunteers at any given time," Outback Links co-ordinator Davida Melksham said.

"If you are a rural person who needs help, you only need to call or e-mail and ask. And that's a big step, as many rural families hesitate to ask for assistance.

"We have set up the service so it's a two-way street. Our volunteers provide farmers and graziers with the assistance they require without depleting already stretched financial resources, and the volunteers get to live and work in another part of the country. It's a simple concept which just works."

To find out more about Outback Links, phone: 1300 731 349, e-mail:

BEVERLEY DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL HAPPENINGS...

"I like my new classroom because it's big and we have our own desks."

"I like that we have carpet now and that it's really, really, really BIG."

"I like how our names are on the wall and there is heaps of stuff in our classroom."

"I like that there is a blackboard and windows with locks that open and shut."

Above are a few comments that our new Year Ones said about their classroom, which for the older community members is the old manual arts room. That room has had many faces in the last 20 to 30 years. Last year it became our temporary library. The library books have been temporarily moved to a room in the high school section of the school. We hope by the time the next edition of the Blarney is out, our library will have moved to its new, modern home.

Staff would like to welcome everyone back in 2011 and a special welcome to our new parents and their children. Remember if you have any queries, please contact your child's teacher by making an appointment with Megan Vandenberg, our school officer. If you are coming to the school for any reason, eg bringing lunch to your child, you must sign in at the front office and then sign out when you leave the school grounds. We want to know who is on our school grounds at all times.

Workplace Learning

Students in Year 9/10 will be starting their 1 day a week program from 25th of February by working each Friday with a local employer. Thank you to our local business people who have volunteered to employ students; Avon Trading, Beverley Newsagency, Cafe 6304, Mr Jeff Murray, Year 2 - Beverley DHS, Kalkarni Lodge - Brookton, Mr Jamie Hammond. More students will be placed with employers in the near future.

Our Term Calendar

As you are all aware this term is going to be a long term – 12 weeks. Staff have been very busy as we did not have a good start thanks to Mother Nature. New volunteers to the museum Brian Beddall and Tom Buckland have worked on various items in the agricultural machinery museum. Brian Beddall has also been amazing with his efforts helping with the storm damage clean up. Kerry Malone, John Pratt and Alan Windsor have been helpful in the planning of activities to be carried out on the machinery collection.

The Clydesdale horses are still looking fantastic thanks to the attention they are receiving from Emily Lucas, Dorothy Wilson, and Derry White. Well done guys we appreciate your time and continued efforts.

Avondale Master Plan Update

The Steering Committee for the Avondale Masterplan, Bruce Mann, Kelly Piper, Cliff Collard, Mitch

Henry, Dee Ridgway, and Lew Shaw have been busy with the Avondale Flora and Fauna Management Plan and the Avondale Farm Business Plan which are providing the basis for the Avondale Master Plan being pulled together by Grant Godfrey. This document is due for completion by 15 May, and so far, all is on schedule. Thank you to everyone in the community who has provided input, feedback and suggestions which are all being considered.

Storm Damage

Sat 29 January 2011

Along with everyone else in the path of the storm, Avondale suffered some damage. Fallen timber, and loss of sheets of tin from sheds, etc. Worst affected was the Blacksmiths Lane where the South wall blew out into the sheep yards and beyond.

Avondale Reserve Vermin Proof Fence Repairs

Fencing material is being ordered, and the Beverley Football Club have agreed to provide the labour. This Minister for the Environment funded project is due for completion by the end of March. It is the first stage of implementation of the Flora and Fauna Management Plan. Thank you to all involved so far. We hope to further conserve the core remnant vegetation through weed control and removal of vermin.

Events Sub-committee

The Avondale Farm Project Association now has an "Events Sub-committee" headed up by Kelly Piper. The idea is to have better communication between Avondale and the Beverley community where events are concerned. The first action has been to rename events being held at Avondale. For example:

Sat 20th and Sun 21st Aug:

CHANGES TO INDEPENDENCE FOR YOUTH ALLOWANCE AND ABSTUDY

From 1 January 2011, there will be further changes to Youth Allowance and ABSTUDY.

You may be affected by these changes if:

- you are receiving or thinking of claiming Youth Allowance or ABSTUDY, or
- your family home is in an outer regional, remote or very remote area of Australia.

About the Independence rules

If you apply for Youth Allowance or ABSTUDY you will be assessed as dependent or independent.

Being independent for Youth Allowance or ABSTUDY means that your parents' income and assets are not taken into account when determining your eligibility or rate of payment. If you are already considered independent for Centrelink purposes, then changes to the independence criteria probably won't affect you.

Age of Independence

From 1 January 2011, the age of independence will change from 24 to 23 years of age. This means if you receive Youth Allowance or ABSTUDY as a full-time student or an Australian Apprentice, you are automatically independent when you turn 23 years of age. The age of independence will then change from 23 to 22 years of age on 1 January 2012.

Independence through workforce participation

If you have supported yourself in full-time paid employment for at least 18 months in one or more jobs, within a period of two years, then you may be considered independent for Youth Allowance or ABSTUDY. Full-time employment means that you have worked an average of 30 hours per week throughout the 18 months. The hours that you work each week can be averaged over periods of no more than 13 weeks.

From 1 January 2011, if you are a full-time student and you need to live away from home to study because your parents' home is in an area considered to be Outer Regional Australia, Remote Australia or Very Remote Australia according to the Australian Standard Geographical Classification, you may also qualify for independence if you:

- have worked part-time (at least 15 hours a week) for at least two years since leaving school, or
- have been out of school for at least 18 months and have earned at least 75 per cent of the maximum rate of pay under Wage Level A of the transitional Australian Pay and Classification Scale or the relevant modern award generally applicable to trainees in an 18-month period.

To be assessed as independent under these arrangements, you must also satisfy the following criteria:

- you are a full-time student
- you need to live away from home to undertake full-time study, and
- your parents' annual income is less than $150 000 in the applicable tax year.

For more information

For further information on the Australian Standard Geographical Classification or to find out whether your family home is in one of the above areas visit www.centrelink.gov.au

For more information about Youth Allowance and ABSTUDY, including these changes, call 13 2490.

View from the Shed The Importance of Special Places

Have you ever returned from a holiday and made a comment like "isn't it great to be able to sleep in my own bed?" We may have had the best holiday but there is nothing quite like the reassurance of our home surroundings and things like our own bed to give us a great sense of security because of its familiarity.

When we stop to think about these personal needs they are part of our psyche from a very young age, when a little child is in unfamiliar territory they don't venture too far from mum or dad. As adults we tend to see some of this behavior as childish, and think we can grow out of this sort of reliance on familiarity but the truth is we all need a sense of personal security.

In Hugh Mackay's latest book "What Makes Us Tick" he devotes a whole chapter on the importance of understanding and knowing about our inbuilt desire to know "my place"

One of the important things to remember is that we need to take time to identify where our special place(s) are. These places are fundamentally a place to retreat to when we are under pressure, or need to be alone to think out a problem. If we don't have these places identified it can increase our stress levels significantly. It is also important to realise these places are always real - cyber space doesn't fit the bill.

It is interesting to look at where these places are for people, it can be a favorite spot on the farm, sometimes just a special chair, often it is the car or the truck or maybe the bedroom. Most times we also have more than one place, perhaps one at work and one at home. What is important is to realise that these special places are important so we can be alone and gather our thoughts about what to do next.

I know people are going to be facing up to some pretty important decisions with budget reviews in the near future; make sure you give yourself and those around you time in their place to consider the decisions being made. If you have teenage children you will know what happens when they are in conflict with you, stomping off to their room to consider options.

In our busy world this time of quiet contemplation is often ignored and is often the difference between a good decision and one made in haste. As Hugh Mackay says it is one of the key desires that drives us, and critically important to our wellbeing in many ways. We are still like children in many ways, find your special place and use it.

Julian

Are you worried about GM Contamination?

You can protect your farm by declaring GM Free

Following the contamination of a farm in Kojonup by wind blown GM Canola you may wish to consider taking steps to protect your property against GM Contamination.

The Western Australian Government has stated that it is the Non GM farmer's responsibility to protect themselves, under common Law, from the risk of GM contamination from neighbouring properties and to protect themselves against the expense of any liability claims from GM seed supply companies, due to adventurous GM seed blowing or being carried onto their property.

In order to protect yourself, you must act soon – before the planting season for 2011.

BEVERLEY YOUTH CENTRE

FEBUARY REPORT

The Youth Centre is just getting back into the swing of things for 2011 with the Youth playing lots of basketball, dodge and just being very active.

Another lounge was donated and we have it situated right near the door so Robyn and I can watch all the activities, but are extremely comfortable, all we need is our name printed on each chair and we would really look the part!

We all would like to wish Deanne Harmon all the best on her endeavors after graduating Year 12 and is undertaking an Enrolled Nurse course in Perth.

She has been a great role model, wonderful friend to many and has achieved lots since being part of the Youth Centre. As a very active member of the WYLD Team her photos are used in brochures, flyers etc. for Regional Development Australia and undertook the task of being one of the main organisers for the magazine and with her brother Nathan was the MC, and opened the launch with the Nyoongar Welcoming Ceremony.

Deanne also was the lead singer for the CD that was produced by WYLD and was very respected and loved by all who participated.

Julie, Robyn and I will miss her but have a wonderful friendship and will keep in contact, even though after driving her to Perth I carried the heavy boxes with tin food etc. up 3 flights of stairs!!!!!!!!!!!!

Everybody from the Youth Centre will miss her and wish her all the best for her future.

I told Gerald Ugle that the only time I won't barrack for Greater Western Sydney is when they play the Dockers, but we were all so excited watching him run out and play his first AFL (NAB Cup) game, truly inspirational to all Youth of Beverley and a great guy. He is certainly making his very supportive family very proud. Well Done.

Active after School will begin this Monday at 2.30pm to 4.00pm and Tuesdays 3.00pm to 4.00pm at the Youth Centre (Town Oval). This is free, we supply healthy snacks and all Primary School children are welcome.

I am organising a bus to take Youth to York on the 5th March for an afternoon of challenges such as-tug-of-war, Gladiator jousting, Capture the Flag and then followed by original bands, hip hop crew and more, 3.00pm to 10.00pm. Cost $10 (includes dinner). First 20 to pay will be on the bus!

Also for the next School holidays along with youth from York I am organising Ice skating 26th April, Paintballing day - 8th May and I will have more on these holiday programmes plus more in the next Blarney.

Lastly, the Youth Centre would like to pass on their condolences to Mark's family (Manager of the Pool), he was fantastic with helping to organise BBQ's, we were organising Water Polo and other events but will endeavour to go ahead next summer in his memory. It was great working with you Mark, thanks - Lyn.

THANK YOU

After our recent dust storm in January many families were at a loss.

The Beverley Football Club has begun the early stages of pre-season training, and although the number of players on the track right now isn't quite what we would have hoped for, we are confident player numbers at training will increase over the next few weeks as people return from holiday and begin to settle into the new year.

The Beverley Football Club welcomes Scott Minchin on to the committee for his first term. Unfortunately for Scott he will miss the 2011 season due to a knee injury, however this loss to the player group is now very much a gain for the committee, and Scott is already proving to be a valuable contributor in this area of our club. If you weren't already aware, Scott has been the mastermind behind our club's website which has been an important means of delivering club news to our players, members, sponsors and supporters.

- The Beverley Football Club seeks interest for the following positions:
 - 2010/2011 Committee Members (up to two vacancies).

Please contact President Steven Minchin on 9641 6060.

Congratulations to:

- Former Reserves Vice-Captain, Brad Copping, who celebrated his 30th birthday on Sunday the 16th of January;
- Dual Springdell medalist and 2010 League premiership player, Brendon Ogg, who celebrated his 30th birthday on Friday the 4th of February;
- Mark Bickley and his fiancée Emma Croucher, who celebrated their marriage on Saturday the 5th of February;
- 2003 and 2010 League premiership player, Matthew McLean, who celebrated his 30th birthday on Saturday the 12th of February;
- David Capper and his fiancée Melanie Simpson, who celebrated their marriage on Saturday the 12th of February;
- Sarah Owens, who has been selected in the Wheatbelt Flames Netball squad; and
- Jacinta Murray, who celebrated her 30th birthday on Friday the 18th of February.

Coming up:

- Friday 4th March – Beverley Football Club: scratch match vs. Corrigin in Perth (details to be confirmed);
- Saturday 5th March – Beverley Football Club: fencing busy bee at Avondale (details to be confirmed);
- Saturday 19th March – Beverley Football Club: scratch match vs. Brookton/Pingelly at Brookton (details to be confirmed); and
- Saturday 26th March – Beverley Football Club: pre-season camp and scratch match vs. Coorow/Latham at Greenhead (details to be confirmed).

The Beverley Football Club is once again conducting a "sheep and wool drive" throughout the course of this season, so if you have any stragglers in your flock which you're happy to part company with, and likewise, if you have any fleeces, pieces, bellies, locks or stains you would like to donate, please contact a committee member regarding where to leave your sheep and/or wool deposit.

A reminder to all players, members, sponsors and supporters that you can now view all the latest news and events from the Beverley Redbacks by checking out our website at www.beverleyfc.com.au

This match was a Day / Night game and was also the Jock Ugle Memorial match. It was one of the best games of the year and was witnessed by a large band of supporters from both York and Beverley. York seemed to be cruising to victory but lost their way in the final few overs to see Beverley record a great win under lights.

This was the final Qualifying game for the year. The Premiership ladder at the completion of all games showed Beverley clearly on top, which is a great achievement with such a young side.

The Premiership Ladder read:

Beverley	130.40 points
Seabrook	119.99 points
Quairading	105.32 points
Tammin	105.10 points
Kellerberrin	89.94 points

Beverley Lawn Tennis Club

Fortunately the clubhouse did not blow away Wizard of Oz style during the recent storms and only debris and minor fence damage (although it probably didn't seem so minor to the people cleaning it all up) were the worst the club sustained. Which meant we were able to continue playing tennis throughout February....it might have been nice if the storm had dropped a pool at the club house though...there sure were some warm days!

CHRIS BOLADERAS MEMORIAL TROPHY

On Sunday the 20th of February, a number of players took to the courts in the annual Chris Boladeras Memorial Trophy. This tournament was a self-handicapping event with a draw for partners. This provided plenty of entertaining tennis and really evened up the matches. On a beautifully overcast afternoon, the final was played, with the tennis so competitive it had to go in to extra time! The final result;

WINNERS: Rob Fisher and Anne Cleland

RUNNERS UP: Rob de Gruchy and Anto Cooke

Thank you very much to the Boladeras family for sponsoring this event and to all those who played.
